Where do you plan to stay? Attendees will have a choice of accommodations: The least expensive will be either of the two university dormitories: the Alaska Pacific University shared rooms with kitchen, bath, lounge area for $50 per person; or the University of Alaska Anchorage dormitory rooms for $50 per night. In addition to the room fee there is a 12% bed tax the Municipality imposes on the room.

Another choice would be the Spring Hill Suites by Marriott at Anchorage University Lake; 907-751-6300; or another place of your own choosing. Spring Hill has complimentary shuttle service from the airport upon request. They also have a full breakfast, indoor pool, and a meeting room. Spring Hill has offered us a room rate of at $222 per night. www.springhillsuites.com/ancum Make sure you ask for the Methodist History Group rate. All unconfirmed rooms will be released on MAY 25, 2017.

Book your group rate for Methodist History Group

Please check off your preferred option and your host committee will reserve the room for you (except Spring Hill or any other hotel choice of your own preference). You will be able to switch between APU and UAA if it proves unsatisfactory upon arrival. We will work out payment options on site except for Spring Hill/Optional Choice for which you need to do your own reservations and payments directly at the above link or in person. The photos are of the buildings to stay in.
