Gift of Love

“May we give ourselves to the gifts God Gives us...and let love be our greatest aim.” I Cor. 14:1

While walking this morning along the Columbia River I pondered my first Sharing Line article as president of the UMW PNW Conference. I am a bird watcher and sighted eight bald eagles. The eagles were God’s gift to me.

Marilyn Wudarcki’s leadership has been a powerful gift to me. At our winter executive meeting Marilyn challenged us with two goals. First, invite two women to a UMW event. In November 2000 my UMW mentor Eleanor Swoboda took me to my first Trinity UMW meeting. I had just moved to East Wenatchee, from Newark, Delaware. Without her invitation I would have stayed home and continued unpacking. Eleanor repeatedly took me to UMW programs. Her outreach led to my involvement at the local, district, and conference levels. Her invitation became my commitment.

As president of my local unit I have followed Eleanor’s example by inviting women from a Methodist church without a UMW to attend Trinity UMW. Before each meeting I call four women who have come to meetings. My goal is to encourage these women to start a UMW at their own church.

Take the challenge: Who will you ask? Who will you take to an event? Invite people to your local and district events, to Mission u July 13-16 at CWU in Ellensburg, to the Conference Annual Meeting October 12-13 at Vancouver First.

Second, take action on your social action passion. My passion is immigration justice. In 2011 I attended a UMW Seminar in Birmingham, Alabama, where giving a ride to an undocumented person was illegal. Back home I developed workshops and made presentations for UMW events. Annually our local unit invited youth of migrant families to share their stories. In our valley churches of different denominations have united to take action. Currently, I attend a citizenship class to quiz prospective citizens on the 100 questions for government, history, and civics that they need to master. Meeting these people is inspiring.

Take the challenge: What is your social action passion? What are you doing? For both challenges let Love be your Aim.

NOMINATIONS

Regretfully this is an article that I wish I did not have to do. Marilyn Wudarcki, our renowned and beloved Conference President has resigned her position due to family health problems. If this was being written with pen and paper, you would see the tear drops on the page. Marilyn came to our Conference as Secretary. A position she filled very capably. After completion of her term as Secretary, she began her term as President. We have come to know and love Marilyn and our hearts are sad that she must leave us. She will always be welcome on our team if she should be able to return. Give Marilyn all your love and prayers as she transitions into this new chapter of her life. We love you Marilyn and our prayers are with you.

Ja net' Crouse will be filling Marilyn's uncompleted term. Ja net' has Served as our Social Action Coordinator, Vice President, a member of the nominations committee, and serves on our Racial Justice Committee. Let's all welcome

Ja net' as she willingly steps into this new position and give her all our help and prayers [p.s. Ja net' is an avid reader]

The Nominations Team has been working very hard to fill all our vacancies and hope to have this job completed by our next meeting in July. We are always glad to welcome new faces and talents to our team so please don't be shy and think you have nothing to offer. God has given each one of us a special talent, so let me know what you are interested in doing.

I was recently asked about "Bridge" an online training opportunity for United Methodist Women. Listed below are two links you may find helpful.

ENDOWMENT FUND

A “Legacy of Love” continues each time a gift is given to the Endowment Fund which was established in 1997 by the United Methodist Women of the Pacific Northwest Conference. The Endowment Fund does not compete with Mission Giving of Local Units but rather it is second mile giving. It is obvious that over the past 20 years the donations from $5.00 to several hundred dollars have made a difference and helped this fund grow to what it is today.

The question has been asked, “Why do we keep such a large balance when that money could be used to help others?”. An Endowment Fund can be likened to a personal savings account, which a person keeps for their future needs in an emergency or at retirement perhaps. It is the interest received annually on this account which is used to give to others and to Pledge to Mission. We need a sizeable amount of principal in order to generate the interest.

As of the first quarter for this year, our balance in the fund is $81,042.03. This is truly an accomplishment for our conference.

GIFTS TO THE ENDOWMENT FUND may be made in any amount at any time of the year. For gifts in honor or in memory of someone, Endowment Remittance Forms may be found on our website pnwumw.org along with the address of our treasurer, Marilyn Reid.

If your gift is not in memory or in honor of someone, please send your gift through your District Treasurer.

Charter for Racial Justice Club

I would like to challenge all of our United Methodist Women’s Units in the Pacific Northwest Conference to become Charter for Racial Justice Club units if you have not done so yet. There is still a lot of work that we need to complete when it comes to Racism of any kind. The brochures that indicate the guidelines for your units is located on the Pacific Northwest United Methodist Website. Here are the links to the brochures that qualify for this years, Charter for Racial Justice Club.

As of October 2017 the UMW units that are Charter for Racial Club Units are 7-Rivers District; Omak, 8 years, Trinity-East Wenatchee, 7 years, Wesley-Yakima, 7 years, Goldendale, 3 years, Inland District; Spokane Valley, 3 years, Bonners Ferry, 2 years, Sandpoint, 2 years, Rockford, 1 year, Puget Sound District; Mount Vernon First, 8 years, Seattle District; Haller Lake 3 years, Vancouver District; Vancouver First, 2 years, Vancouver Heights, 2 years, Longview, 1 year, Satsop, 1 year. As you all can see we have 15 units in all 6 districts of Pacific Northwest Conference. I challenge for more units to come join the Charter for Racial Justice Club.

America’s Original Sin by Jim Wallis (Racism, White Privilege, and the Bridge to a New America)

America’s problem with race has deep roots, with the country’s foundation tied to the near extermination of one race of people and the enslavement of another. Racism is truly our nation’s original sin. In America’s Original Sin, Wallis offers a prophetic and deeply personal call to action in overcoming the racism so ingrained in American society. He speaks candidly to Christians-particularly white Christians - urging them to cross a new bridge toward racial justice and healing.

United Methodist Women (UMW) Racial Justice Award Nomination

The Committee on the Charter for Racial Justice of the PNW Conference UMW is seeking nominees for the annual Racial Justice Award to be presented at the PNW Conference Annual Meeting in October.

READING PROGRAM 2018

Have you checked out the offers on the National Web Site?

The “13 Steps to Sustainability” is a Download or Power point or Tedtalk! I have chosen to download the whole program to share in book form. This Social Action of using 13 United Methodist Women Principles is creating a new chapter in SUSTAINABILITY. You are part of this exciting economic history.

Here is a short synopsis of how we can better our planet:

- #1. ACCESSIBILITY –are you or your church complying with the American Disabilities Act?
- #2. AFFORDABILITY - Carpooling or low-cost transportation.
- #3. CARBON FOOTPRINT – turn down the heat or A/C a few degrees or look for ways to use renewable energy.
- #4. HEALTH FOOD OR BEVERAGES – check out Fair Trade or Organic. Toxic pesticide poisoning is suffered by farmers.
- #5. JUST ECONOMIC OPPORTUNITIES – Be sure the businesses you use do not use slave or child labor.
- #6. LOCAL SOLIDARITY – Make alliances in your community to better partner around specific needs.
- #7 MULTIGENERATIONAL INCLUSION – offer child care.
- #8. PAPER USE – try using recycled paper or use both sides of a sheet.
- #9. RACIAL JUSTICE – Combat all forms of racism and oppression.
- #10. TOXIN REDUCTION – Avoid using petroleum-based and toxic cleaning products, reduce your energy use.
- #11. WASTE REDUCTION – Choose recycled plastic, paper, glass and metal.
- #12. WATER USE - Avoid or eliminate individual bottles water.
- #13. WELL-BEING OF PARTICIPANTS – Provide a quiet space for meditation and prayer.

Did you know that if just 80,000 UMW members used reusable water bottles for 365 days rather than buying water in a bottle, we would save enough energy to power an average household for 552 years!

WHAT ABOUT OUR MONEY?

“What few topics were you taught to avoid during a polite dinner table discussion – especially with people you were not quite sure would agree with you?”

Religion and money!

I can promise you that for the Mission u plenary study on “What About Our Money? A Faith Response” we will have deep and fruitful discussion on these topics. I’m excited return to The Pacific Northwest and especially thrilled to focus on this.

Money is essential to creating a lasting and just change in the world. How we view both, abundance and scarcity, our experiences of living with wealth or living in poverty...a serious conversation about money is essential for the Church’s mission and for our own lives.*

Join us as we consider money matters from a biblical, ethical, and practiced perspective,” -Rev. Neal Christie

*He will lead this plenary study and serves as Assistant General Secretary of Education and Leadership Formation, Board of Church and Society in Washington, D.C. and edited the current edition of The Social Principles published last May.*

Mission u electives are either “Embracing Health and Wholeness” - Rev. Dr. Carol Mariano, Rev. Dr. Jo Ann Shipley and Rev. Golden Neal or “Missionary Conferences with a Difference” - Bishop Mary Ann Swenson.

QUILTS

Don't forget to bring or send your quilts to Annual Conference

Each year United Methodist Women throughout our Pacific Northwest Conference send quilts to Annual Conference. These quilts will be distributed through the District Presidents for children throughout the districts. Quilts can be brought to the United Methodist Women display at Annual Conference June 21-24 in Puyallup.

This project started in 1991. Since then, many thousands of quilts have been made for Children at Risk. A big thank you to all the quilt makers.

Inland District President

EDUCATION AND INTERPRETATION

Table Talk groups are being formed to discuss "The Way Forward" to inform members how the United Methodist Church is addressing the role of our LGBTQ members. The UMW Executive team is trained and willing to lead discussion groups at the local units. Contact your District President if you would like to host a discussion to learn more about this ongoing discernment process.

The UMW National Assembly is on our schedules for May 18-20, 2018, in Columbus, OH. I hope your bag is packed and you are looking forward to hearing the excellent speakers and participating with your UMW sisters from around the country.

The conference UMW Executive Team met for a weekend of planning meetings at Lazy F Camp near Ellensburg. We were given a VIP tour of the building construction project that will bring a new dining facility to the camp later this year. As Lazy F continues to attract groups from outside the United Methodist Church, it is clear that the camp can expand its outreach with a larger dining space. During our stay, there was another group staying there who represented AlaTeen, an organization associated with Alcoholics Anonymous.

LEGACY TEA

Vancouver Heights United Methodist Women hosted a Legacy Tea on February 24, 2018. Surrounding units were also invited. Thirty-six women attended along with eight amazing guys (who helped decorate, serve and clean up). Donations were accepted and $349.14 was gathered for the Legacy Fund to assure that mission work will continue into the next 150 years. Gail Antijunti distributed 150-year legacy pins and several spoke to the group of the impact that attending Mission u has made on their lives. It was a day of inspiration for all that attended and a renewed excitement for attending Mission u was evident.

It was a true blessing!

Deb Avery, Mission u Assistant Dean

What's the Purpose of the Money?

United Methodist Women Have a Purpose!

Mission Giving

What is a purpose statement? It says who we are and what we intend to do as an organization. The organized unit of the UMW shall be a community of women whose PURPOSE is

To know God and

To experience freedom as whole persons through Jesus Christ;

To develop a creative, supportive fellowship;

And to expand concepts of mission through participation in the global ministries of the church

We give every year to our favorite projects but do we really understand where the money goes?

Women's Division is now called United Methodist Women National Office. There are two types of giving for donations to United Methodist Women. Mission Giving is undesignated giving and money is allotted to missions who have applied for grants with the National office and is given based upon need. There are 5 channels of mission giving: Pledge to Mission; Special Mission Recognition (Pins); Gift to Mission; Gift in memory and World Thank offering.

Designated Giving is money donated for specific national and international missions such as a Brighter Future for Children and Youth, Assembly Offering, World communion Scholarships, Call to Prayer, etc.

Because this money is designated, it will "sit" in the bank for the specific designated mission.

When we know our why, our what becomes much more effective. Focus on Women, Children & Youth. From its beginning in 1869, UMW has focused on ministries with women, children and youth.

We have been empowering WOMEN through leadership education and training, mission education (Mission U), the Reading Program, tools for advocacy, and programs that combat abuse of all varieties.

UMW are committed to seeing that 70% of Mission Giving from members go to the projects and programs we support. Around 20-30 % stays with the local, district, and conference organizations of UMW to support local mission. Only 9 % covers administrative costs!

As we work our way through this year and next year of change, it is very challenging and exciting!

Hopefully if you have any question, call or send email off to a district or conference officer to get answers. We are here to help. Please continue to mail all your pledges, 5 and 7 Star donations and SMR pins to your district treasurers for changes will happen in 2019 and not this year.

Thank you to the local units and the district treasurers for all you put into mission work.

*SAVE THE DATE****

OCTOBER 12-13, 2018, VANCOUVER FIRST UMC,
VANCOUVER, WA

2018 has started out with a bang with the Pacific NW Conference of United Methodist Women's leadership team meeting at Wesley Terrace in Des Moines, WA on January 12-14, and again at Lazy F Camp and Retreat Center in Ellensburg on April 20-22. The program committee brought lots of enthusiasm as we shared ideas for the upcoming annual meeting. There will be inspiring speakers, bible study, workshops, and lots of celebrating the past 149 years of service for women, children, and youth. Those attending the 2017 annual meeting chose Immigration as a top priority for study. We will also continue with the priorities chosen by the National Organization of United Methodist Women. They are:

- Economic Inequality: There will be a push for the adoption of legislation that builds the base of living wage in at least 2 states and municipalities by 2022.
- Criminalization of Communities of Color: We will focus on interrupting the school to prison pipeline by working for a 25% decrease in school arrests and the redesigning of zero-tolerance policies in local school districts.

- Climate Justice: We will advocate for a 25% reduction of carbon emissions by the top two contributing sectors by 2024.
- Maternal and Child Health: We will work to decrease maternal mortality by calling the establishment of Maternal Mortality Review Committees in every state and building a network of MCH advocates to fight for comprehensive reproductive health care and education.
- A Way Forward Discussion

One way to get other women interested in United Methodist Women is to bring them to the Annual Meeting in October so they can see how the organization is changing the lives of Women, Children, and Youth and how they can become a part of an organization that is a community of women, rooted in our Christian faith, who turn faith, hope, and love into action on behalf of women, children and youth around the world.

Linda Key, Vice President

TO EVERY UNIT IN THE PNW: We are hoping for a group picture to share at the Annual Meeting to become a Legacy Booklet. Please send me an email with your unit picture (with a list of names included if possible) by August 1, 2018.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN of Lynden UMC celebrated the 149th anniversary of United Methodist Women with a cake. Only seven were present, but the total number of their membership years amounted to 314! Their favorite things about United Methodist Women included fellowship, working together for a PURPOSE, helping women and children around the world with Mission Giving.

An excerpt Message from UMW National President

Shannon Priddy is from Indianapolis, her message is “Going After a Life of Love,” taken from 1 Corinthians 14:1-3 The Message.

“Go after a life of love as if your life depended on it – because it does. Give yourselves to the gifts God gives you. Most of all, try to proclaim God’s truth. If you praise God in private, God understands you but no one else does, for you are sharing intimacies just between you and God. But when you proclaim God’s truth in everyday speech, you’re letting others in on the truth so that they can grow and be strong and experience God’s presence with you.”

Lately, I have heard this a lot, “I don’t want to bother you, you must be busy.” I find the time to use the talents God gave me because I am accountable to my faith and my gifts. I found this quote and have decided to adopt it as my own. “Save the excuses. It’s not about ‘having’ time. It’s about making time. If it matters, you will make time.” It’s about discovering your gifts in pursuit of God.

We have more choices in our lives than ever before, when to spend our money and how to spend our time for God’s purpose in your life. Sharing the work of United Methodist Women is letting others in on the truth of Jesus Christ through my work and words. God is not asking us to take on tasks we don’t know how to do. God is asking us to use the gifts we already have to proclaim God’s truth. Together, we have been working with local groups and organizations around the world for 149 years. We walk in the message of love.

God doesn’t want us to work alone. God shared the son so we would have an example. Jesus had disciples, so He didn’t have to be alone. Jesus told them to spread the good news. United Methodist Women members follow this example. We are not sitting waiting for people to come to us, we go to them.

We have all heard the platitudes, the beatitudes, the mottos in life the keep us moving forward. Go after a life of love as if your life depended on it – because it does. Jesus didn’t sit at the temple and wait for people to come to him, and neither will we.
