

Comments from Participants

"It was a rich, important, healing time for me and I am grateful for all you did to create such a rich environment. I've said to myself a number of times since, 'Why didn't I come sooner?' And, I've responded to myself 'I came when I most needed to, at just the right time.'"

Amory Peck, UMC, WA

"The speakers, worship and accommodations were all great, but it was the rhythm of the schedule that moved me to a deeper level. It began with the silence in the evenings to hear my own voice broken only by the praise of morning worship. ... The free time in the afternoons for walks, naps and my own agendas were refreshing. These and the small group time in the evenings all worked its way to open my heart. Along with new ideas stimulating my mind, it was the pace and schedule which opened my spirit to God's will and way."

Rev. Jim Stender, ELCA, WA

"My first experience at a 5-day Academy was wonderful. The covenant group was helpful, the presenters engaging, and location very peaceful and beautiful. ... What I appreciated most of all during the week was the extensive amount of time allowed for silence and reflection. That was a true gift."

Rev. Dan Wilson-Fey, UMC, OR

"The location is beautiful, there is a nice balance between programs and downtime, the worship was engaging and the community very supportive. It was a wonderful opportunity for me to step away from the busyness of life and experience the healing power of The Holy Spirit and to grow deeper in my faith. I look forward to attending the next Academy."

The Academy for Spiritual Formation

Are you yearning for a place to nourish your spiritual life? Do you seek a spirituality deeply rooted in the Christian faith and tradition, yet open and free? Are you looking for a community of people on a similar journey? The Five Day Academy for Spiritual Formation may be for you.

Worship shapes the heart and soul of the Academy. Following ancient practices, the day begins with Morning Prayer and closes with Night Prayer; we begin and end each day with God. The Sacrament of Holy Communion or Eucharist is celebrated every day as a time to "taste and see the goodness of the Lord."

Two faculty presenters provide the primary content of your Five Day Academy. They have been chosen for their knowledge about this year's academy theme and for their integrity as faith practitioners. Their knowledge and wisdom encourage deeper faith and an integrity of witness in the lives of the participants.

Besides these two faculty presenters, one other "teacher" should be mentioned and that is silence. From the earliest days, Christians have seen the importance of silence for hearing what God is saying to us. While new for some, many have found this to be one of the most valuable aspects of their first Academy experience.

Ancient Wisdom, Earth Wisdom

"But where shall wisdom be found? And where is the place of understanding?" (Job 28:12 NRSV) We live in a world of vast knowledge, but sometimes wisdom is in short supply. As Christians seeking divine guidance for our lives, we can have confidence that it may be found in the ancient wisdom texts of our tradition as well as the most ancient source of all—God's created world. Join us as we journey with wise teachers through the wisdom scriptures and into the realm of creation spirituality.
