

BETWEEN THE LINES

BETWEEN THE LINES: A VISUAL LENTEN JOURNEY

Jubilate Worship Arts Institute Workshop, Friday-Saturday, 1/30-1/31 at Haller Lake United Methodist Church, 13055 1st Ave NE, Seattle

Worship has many words. Scripture, hymns, liturgy, prayers... yet, the Living Word is more than printed letters on a page. Before the average Christian could read, visuals played a crucial role in making the invisible visible. As we explore how we experience the Lenten journey, we will imagine and bring to life the story between the lines. Journey with us through diverse modalities for engaging our eyes, hearts, and spirits in worship.

Keynote: Staci Imes (Pastor, Woodland Park Presbyterian Church) and
Emma Donohew (Pastor, Greenlake and Crown Hill United Methodist Churches)

Friday, 7pm-9pm: Keynote Address, Worship Service
Saturday, 9am-5pm: Workshops, Lunch (included), Worship Planning for Church Teams, Collaborative Worship Service

Workshops

Visual Arts: The Image Between the Lines, Emma Donohew

Scripture: The Story Between the Lines, Staci Imes

Music: Singing Between the (Staff) Lines, Robert Bolyard

Preaching: Crossing the Line, Paul Mitchell

$50/person or $100/group of 4; payment due at door; register by submitting your name, church, and contact info to Leann, leannonishi@me.com, (206) 228-9795